INTRODUCTION

Triland Metals Limited (“Triland”, “we”, “us”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This privacy notice will inform you as to how we look after your personal data and tell you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you.

Whilst all Triland’s customers are corporate or institutional organisations, in the course of serving such customers, we may obtain personal information about you as an individual. Your privacy is important to us and we value the trust that you place on its safekeeping with us.

1. IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND WHO WE ARE

PURPOSE OF THIS PRIVACY NOTICE

This privacy notice gives you important information on how Triland collects and processes personal data, including any data provided through this website, or when you sign up to our market reports, purchase a product or service, apply for jobs at Triland or attend our events.

The services we provide are not intended for individual persons and our counterparties are wholly corporate bodies. As such, our processing activities in respect of personal information are of an ancillary nature, as further detailed below.

It is important that you read this privacy notice together with any other privacy notice or fair processing notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This privacy notice supplements the other notices and is not intended to override them.

CONTROLLER

Triland is the controller and responsible for your personal data. Our organisation is made up of different legal entities (together, the “Triland Group”), details of which can be found on our website on the Contact Us page. This privacy notice is issued on behalf of the Triland Group so when we mention “Triland”, “we”, “us” or “our” in this privacy notice, we are referring to the relevant company in the Triland Group responsible for processing your data. Triland Metals Limited is the controller and responsible for this website.

Triland’s compliance team and Data Security Officer are responsible for overseeing questions in relation to this privacy notice. If you have any questions about this privacy notice, including any requests to exercise your legal rights, please contact us using the details set out below.

We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please contact us in the first instance.

Where Personal Data is processed by our DIFC branch, additional information applicable to DIFC data subjects is set out in section 10 of this Privacy Notice.

CHANGES TO THE PRIVACY NOTICE AND YOUR DUTY TO INFORM US OF CHANGES

This version was last updated in March 2026.

Historic versions can be obtained by contacting us.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

THIRD-PARTY LINKS

This website and any materials we send to you may include links to third-party websites, plug-ins and applications. Visiting or clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy notice of every website you visit.

2. THE DATA WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you which we have grouped together as follows:

- ♦ Identity Data includes first name, maiden name, last name, username or similar identifier, marital status, title, date of birth and gender.
- ♦ Contact Data includes postal address, email address and telephone numbers.
- ♦ Transaction Data includes details about payments to and from you or the organisation you represent and other details of products and services you or the organisation you represent have received from us.

- ◆ Technical Data includes internet protocol (“IP”) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform and other technology on the devices you use to access this website and receive products and services from us.
- ◆ Profile Data includes your username and password, orders and transactions made by you, suitability information, your interests, preferences, feedback and survey responses.
- ◆ Usage Data includes information about how you use our website, products and services.
- ◆ Marketing and Communications Data includes your preferences in receiving marketing from us and our third parties and your communication preferences.

We also collect, use and share Aggregated Data such as statistical or demographic data. Aggregated Data may be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your Usage Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature. However, if we combine or connect Aggregated Data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this privacy notice.

We do not collect any Special Categories of Personal Data about you (this includes details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sex life, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic and biometric data). Nor do we collect any information about criminal convictions and offences. However, where we have provided an option for use of your biometric data (such as fingerprint or face recognition) and you have selected such option, such biometric data stored on your device may be used solely for the purpose of access to our services (such as the Tri-X mobile app).

IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE PERSONAL DATA

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you or your organisation and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are contemplating entering into with you or the organisation you represent (for example, to provide you or the organisation you represent with goods or services). In this case, we may have to cancel a product or service you have with us but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

3. HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

- ◆ Direct interactions. You (or someone acting on your behalf) may give us personal data by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise. This includes personal data we are provided with in connection with:
 - ◆ entering into a business relationship with us;
 - ◆ applying for our products or services;
 - ◆ creating an account on our website or otherwise;
 - ◆ subscribing to our service or publications;
 - ◆ requesting marketing material to be sent to you;
 - ◆ entering a competition, promotion or survey;
 - ◆ signing up and/or attending our events; or
 - ◆ giving us some feedback.
- ◆ Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website, we may automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies. Please see Cookies for further details.

- ◆ Third parties or publicly available sources. We may receive personal data about you from various third parties such as credit reference agencies, a member of the Triland Group, introducing brokers and intermediaries, or someone acting on your behalf.

4. HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- ◆ Where we need to perform the contract we are about to enter into or have entered into with you or as someone associated with our corporate or institutional client.
- ◆ Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.
- ◆ Where we need to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation.

Generally we do not rely on consent as a legal basis for processing your personal data other than in relation to sending third party direct marketing communications to you via email or text message and in relation to ad-hoc photography and/or videography at events. You have the right to withdraw consent to marketing at any time. If you wish to withdraw consent, please Contact Us.

PURPOSES FOR WHICH WE WILL USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We have set out below, in a table format, a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

In no event does Triland sell or trade your personal data.

Note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please Contact Us if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

4. HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA (Continued)

MARKETING

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising.

PROMOTIONAL OFFERS FROM US

We may use your personal data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant for you (we call this marketing).

You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us or received services from us or if you provided us with your details when you entered a competition, completed a survey or registered for a promotion or event and, in each case, you have not opted out of receiving that marketing.

THIRD-PARTY MARKETING

We will get your express opt-in consent before we share your personal data with any company outside the Triland Group for marketing purposes.

OPTING OUT

You can ask us to stop sending you marketing messages; please Contact Us at any time.

Where you opt out of receiving these marketing messages, this will not apply to personal data provided to us as a result of a product/service, warranty registration, product/service experience or other transactions.

COOKIES

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of our website may become inaccessible or not function properly. For more information about the cookies we use, please see Cookies for more information.

CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose in accordance with applicable law. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please Contact Us.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, to the extent necessary and/or permitted by law.

5. DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may have to share your personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table in section 4 above.

- ♦ Triland Group
- ♦ Service providers which perform services on our behalf, including (but not limited to) ratings agencies, screening service providers, fraud prevention agencies and consultancy firms
- ♦ Persons acting on your behalf
- ♦ Independent agents, intermediaries or brokers with which we have a regular relationship
- ♦ Regulatory, taxation or judicial bodies upon request and to the extent permitted by law
- ♦ Exchanges, trading venues and clearing houses
- ♦ Certain regulated professionals such as lawyers and auditors

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We only permit our third-party service providers to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

6. INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

We may share your personal data within the Triland Group. This will involve transferring your personal data outside the UK .

Some of our external third parties are also based outside of the UK so their processing of your personal data will involve a transfer of personal data outside of the UK.

Furthermore, Triland may use cloud-based and other technologies in the provision of the services which may be located and/or hosted in data centers outside of the UK. Any transfer of personal data to such data centers shall be made in accordance with this section 6.

Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the UK, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- ◆ We may transfer your personal data to countries that have been approved by regulations and satisfied the data protection test.
- ◆ Where we use certain service providers, we may use standard data protection clauses.
- ◆ Where we use providers based in the US, we may transfer data to them pursuant to the UK-US Data Bridge, provided that they are a participating organisation under the framework and opted in to the UK extension.

Please Contact Us if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data.

7. DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures designed to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we apply measures to limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

Triland implements and maintains information security practices that integrate the protection of personal data into the process lifecycles of the business.

We have also put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator and/or authority of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

8. DATA RETENTION

HOW LONG WILL YOU USE MY PERSONAL DATA FOR?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal and regulatory requirements. Most personal data collected in relation to a specified customer is kept for the duration of the contractual relationship with the customer, plus the number of years specified in applicable laws, rules and/or regulations.

Details of retention periods for different aspects of your personal data are available upon request; please Contact Us if you require more information.

9. YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data. If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out below, please Contact Us.

- ♦ Access | You can receive information about how we process your personal data and a copy of such personal data. This is commonly known as a “data subject access request”.
- ♦ Rectification | You can require us to correct your personal data, where you consider it to be inaccurate or incomplete.
- ♦ Erasure | You can require the deletion of your personal data, to the extent permitted by law.
- ♦ Restriction | You can request the restriction of the processing of your personal data.
- ♦ Objection | You may object to the processing of your personal data on grounds relating to your particular situation. In the case of direct marketing, we will immediately cease further processing if we receive your objection.
- ♦ Transfer | Where legally applicable, you can require us to transfer (or have returned) your personal data where technically feasible.
- ♦ Consent withdrawal | You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.

NO FEE

In most cases, you will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances to the extent permitted by law.

WHAT WE MAY NEED FROM YOU

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

TIME LIMIT TO RESPOND

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.
